

January 31, 2013

BCA's new Community Arts Tuesdays

The Bronx Council on the Arts is launching their new networking event Community Arts Tuesdays.

On January 29, from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m., BCA will host the event at 2700 E. Tremont Avenue to bring community members together for a night of networking and refreshments.

"Community Arts Tuesdays are a great way for the community to get to know the range of services we have to offer," says BCA

Executive Director Deirdre Scott, "and we are eager to be able to show our space and highlight the talents of Bronx artists. We value the support of local businesses by hosting these Tuesday evenings. We will continue to build strong cultural connections with our neighbors here in the Square and across the borough at large."

The new gathering is a networking opportunity to gather with our Westchester

Square neighbors and friends, introduce the BCA staff and rub elbows with members of the newly formed Westchester Square BID. The evening will feature Jazz and Latin music by John Benitez, recipient of the 2012 BRIO Award for artistic excellence. Refreshments provided by Key Food at Westchester Square.

Admission to this event is free and open to the public.