This Script Could Change Your Life: A Screenwriting Workshop
A Bronx Writers Center Workshop at Barnes & Noble Bay Plaza on Friday, February 24, 6:00pm

(Bronx, NY – February 3, 2012) Presented by the Bronx Council on the Arts' Bronx Writers Center This Script Could Change Your Life: A Screenwriting Workshop is a free hands-on workshop for writers of all levels and ages. Bring a notebook and pen and prepare to start the writing project that you've been dreaming about. Participants will respond to writing prompts designed to inspire and to motivate, while learning practical steps for overcoming the obstacles between them and their writing goals. The workshop will be held at Barnes & Noble at Bay Plaza on Friday, February 24, 2012, from 6:00-8:00pm. Admission is free and all are welcome.

Award-winning playwright and performer Linda Manning will teach the workshop. Linda has worked in the theater for the past twenty-five years regionally and in New York. Most recently, she received a BRIO Award from the Bronx Council on the Arts for her screenplay Learning to Drive. Her new play, Bite The Apple, was recently workshopped by the Directors Company in New York City. She was a founding member of The Invisible Theatre in New York City where she wrote, acted and produced. Her play DO SOMETHING WITH YOURSELF! The Life of Charlotte Brontë was produced by The Invisible Theatre and published by Smith and Kraus. It has been performed throughout the U.S. For more information see current projects and production history. Visit www.lindasmanning.com to learn more about Linda.
