

A BLOOMIN' GOOD TIME!

The North East Bronx Senior Center held an art show called "Throggs Neck in Bloom" on Thursday, June 26. The show highlighted beautiful art works created by seniors who participated in a spring painting class series, part of the Bronx Council on the Arts SPARC Program, led by artist-in-residence Josie Gonzalez, seen here third from left with students and senior center director Silvia Ponce, far right.

Photo courtesy of Jose Gonzalez