La Bomba Me Llama fuses the contagious rhythms of Afro-Puerto Rican Bomba with Modern and West African Dance. It is a journey of a young lady, Tere, in search of her cultural roots. Along the way she finds the joys of love and its deception; never losing faith, she finds her true love and passion for life.

And in that discovery, the spirits of her African ancestors call!! Their voices and rhythms show her the way to who she is becoming and where she belongs.
