When you think of The Bronx, five things come to mind: the New York Yankees, Arthur Avenue, the Bronx Zoo, Doo Wop music and Gene DiNapoli.

Known as Mr. Entertainment, Gene DiNapoli has mastered his long-paid musical tributes to Elvis Presley, the Blue Brothers and more recently Dean Martin. But unlike the previous acts, Gene was not born and raised in Memphis, Chicago or Ohio, but in the East Coast music capital of the world, The Bronx, the only city in the world that starts with 'THE' (except for The Vatican).

So therefore it was only a matter of time before Gene started to do a show based on the music of several Bronx artists, such as Bobby Darin, Dion, Tony Orlando and more. Songs like "Runaround Sue", "Splish Splash" and "Knock Three Times" are now considered classics and are some of the best loved songs in all of music.

Gene's show "The Bronx Bombers" showcases music from 50s Doo Wop, 60s Rock 'n Roll and 70s Pop. His unique style of entertaining, along with his recollections and stories of growing up in the Bronx, bring personal realism to this musical Bronx tale. So sit back and enjoy "The Bronx Bombers" show starring Bronx native Gene DiNapoli.

The final concert in the series is a performance by the Just Nuts Party Band on Wednesday, August 27th, at Henry Hudson Park (Independence Avenue & Kappock Street). Visit www.bronxarts.org for details.

For more information regarding these events or any other community issue, please contact Assemblyman Dinowitz' District Office at 718-796-5345.

These concerts are made possible with the support of Assemblyman Jeffrey Dinowitz, NYC Department of Parks and Recreation, NYC Department of Cultural Affairs, and NYS Council on the Arts.
