

DAILY NEWS

Tuesday, October 5, 2010

It's trolley time!

The public is invited to ride the free Bronx Culture Trolley tomorrow.

The replica of a 20th century trolley transports visitors on the first Wednesday of every month (except January and September) to Bronx hot spots, all featuring a variety of entertainment options. The tour ends at the Bruckner Bar & Grill for music, food and drink.

Trolley night starts with a 5 p.m. reception at the Longwood Art Gallery at Hostos Community College, 450 Grand Concourse. The trolley departs at 5:30, 6:30 and 7:30 p.m. New attractions are added monthly; admission to most venues is free. Riders can get on and off at any scheduled stop and spend as much time as they wish at any or all of the venues.

For more information and a detailed schedule, call (718) 931-9500 ext. 33 or log on to www.bronxarts.org.