Bronx Council on the Arts and the Bronx Culture Trolley present
Jazz Guitarist and Composer Doug Wamble at Grand Concourse's Z'Novia Restaurant on October 5th

(Bronx, NY – September 17, 2011) The Bronx Council on the Arts (BCA) presents jazz guitarist and composer Doug Wamble in his premiere performance at Z'Novia Restaurant on October 5th as a segment of that evening's Bronx Culture Trolley. Doug will perform two sets, one at 6:00pm and another at 7:00pm. Z'Novia, known for its "Sophisticated Southern Cuisine", is located at 888B Grand Concourse at 161st Street. All are welcome.

A native of Memphis, Tennessee, Doug Wamble has always been surrounded by a vast musical and cultural landscape. Since moving to New York City, he has performed and recorded with artists such as Wynton Marsalis, Cassandra Wilson, Branford Marsalis, Bill Frisell and Charlie Hunter.

A 2011 BCA BRIO award winner for music composition, Doug has composed and performed original works for the Lincoln Center Jazz Orchestra, Chamber Music America. He has performed film soundtracks for acclaimed documentarian Ken Burns including The Tenth Inning, Prohibition and The Central Park Five.

Doug has released three solo albums: Country Libations and Bluestate on Marsalis Music/Universal Records and Doug Wamble on E1/Koch Records. His new album is due in late 2011. Learn more about Doug and his music at www.dougwamble.com.

Z'Novia is conveniently located in the Bronx two blocks up from Yankee stadium at 888B Grand Concourse at 161st Street. Stay for dinner or nibble on a special Trolley Burger while sipping their specially-priced Trolley-Tinis.

Z'Novia information and directions: 718-585-5550 or www.znovia.com.

This evening's performance is made possible with public funds from the Bronx Council on the Arts through the NYC Department of Cultural Affairs, NYS Council on the Arts, Greater New York Arts Development Fund Re grants, the Bronx Empowerment Zone, Bloomberg Philanthropies, the Lambent Foundation Fund of Tides Foundation, the Scherman Foundation, Council Member Maria del Carmen Arroyo, Bronx Borough President Ruben Diaz Jr. and the Bronx Delegation of the City Council.
