About "Amistad": When INTIKANA traveled to Cuba and attended the 2010 Hip Hop Symposium, he visited Micro X of Alamar, Cuba where the island's Hip Hop was born. There, he built a friendship with Miki Flow and Brebaje Man of legendary Cuban Hip Hop group Explosión Suprema and together they recorded the song "Amistad" ("friendship") which features Cuban female emcees/singers Indiana and La Real. Directed & edited by INTIKANA, the "Amistad" music video documents his life-changing trip, the people he met, and it speaks on maintaining a true friendship across borders, despite the political tensions that exist between Cuba and the United States.

Bronx Recognizes Its Own (BRIO) provides direct support to individual Bronx artists who create literary, media, visual, and performing works of art. 25 BRIO grants of $3,000 each are awarded to Bronx artists. BRIO award winners complete a one-time public service. The awards are based solely on artistic excellence. Winners are selected by a panel of arts professionals representing the award disciplines. Only artists living in the Bronx are eligible to apply.

Bronx Council on the Arts (BCA) celebrates over 45 years as a private, non-profit membership organization that is the official cultural agency of Bronx County. Recognized nationally as a leading arts service organization in providing cultural services and arts programs, BCA serves a multicultural constituency in excess of 1.4 million residents. BCA provides an array of services to 5,000 artists and more than 250 arts and community-based organizations.

Funding for BRIO is provided by the New York City Department of Cultural Affairs - Greater New York Arts Development Fund Additional funding is provided by the New York State Council on the Arts, the Scherman Foundation and BCA's membership program.
