

The Bronx Reading Team

Chestnut and the Bronx Council on the Arts partnered to create The Bronx Reading Team. The free program was available each weekend for neighborhood children to participate in. The team met in the lobby of a Chestnut building at 2700 Grand Concourse to read and discuss The Hunger Games during the months of October and November 2013.

