The Creative Bronx Black Book Creative Industry Directory is supported by the Deutsche Bank Americas Foundation Arts & Enterprise Program, the New York City Department of Cultural Affairs, and New York State Senator José M. Serrano. This project is funded by a grant from the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA). SBA's funding should not be construed as an endorsement of any products, opinions, or services. All SBA-funded projects are extended to the public on a nondiscriminatory basis.

"I love where I'm situated. I tell clients that it's easy to get here, it's the first (subway) stop in the Bronx."

-Stephen Wallis, modprop.com

Bronx businesses are one of New York City's best-kept secrets. The Creative Bronx! BLACK BOOK is putting them on the map. The vetted, professional creative services on this list are just a phone call and a few minutes away. The Bronx is truly an untapped reservoir of unique and wonderful creative resources. It's time everyone knew that.

The Creative Bronx! BLACK BOOK directory is updated regularly and is available online as a printable PDF at bronxarts.org/CBBB.asp. It's handy to keep on your desk.

The Bronx Council on the Arts (BCA) is celebrating 47 years as a private, non-profit membership organization that is the official cultural agency of Bronx County. Recognized nationally as a leading arts service organization in providing cultural services and arts programs, BCA serves a multicultural constituency in excess of 1.4 million. BCA provides services to thousands of artists and over 250 arts and community-based organizations, including direct financial support to individual artists and non-profit organizations; information services; technical assistance; education and community programming; and advocacy.

BCA makes connections between artists and communities with our Longwood Arts Project, a contemporary exhibition space; the Bronx Writers Center, dedicated to the creative and professional development of Bronx writers; and our dynamic website www.bronxarts.org.
