Latin Jazz Ensemble with Debra Kreisberg

1:00 – 2:30pm

In a small combo setting students will begin to learn how the melodies, harmony and rhythms of traditional Latin music and jazz work together to create Latin jazz. Students will listen to and play classic Latin jazz repertoire made popular by such artists as Tito Puente, and begin to improvise on simple chord structures. Recommended for students entering fourth grade and up. At least one year of study required on one of the following instruments: piano, bass, drums or percussion, saxophone, flute or brass.

Strings Ensemble with Agnes Nagy & Jessica Yeung 2:00 – 3:30pm

This class will provide an opportunity for new string players to become familiar with ensemble playing and give players with experience knowledge of performing a range of musical styles. In this session, we will learn to play in unison and play two-part music of popular, traditional and classical repertoire. Students should have knowledge of posture and basic technique plus the ability to read music notation. Recommended for students entering third grade and up. At least one year of study required on one of the following instruments: violin, viola, cello.

ROCK BAND with Jon LaTona & Frank Murillo 3:00 – 5:00pm

Learn the basics to rock out and play in your own rock band! Students will learn how to perform basic chords, chord progressions, strumming/plucking patterns, riffs, simple melodies, and simple improvised and/or non-improvised solos. Recommended for students ages 10 – 17. At least six months of study required on one of the following instruments: guitar, bass, keyboards, drums, voice.

$10 per class; $15 for 2 classes
